The Conversion of St Paul

Introduction: Dear friends today we celebrate the feast of the Conversion of St Paul. During this service, we will hear that even the lowliest of sinners can become great in the kingdom of God. We pray that God may reconvert our hearts so that they may become more like the heart of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Opening Hymn: Morning has broken

Morning has broken
like the first morning;
blackbird has spoken
like the first bird:
praise for the singing,
praise for the morning,
praise for them springing
fresh from the word!

2

Sweet the rain's new fall,
sunlit from heaven,
like the first dew fall
on the first grass:
praise for the sweetness
of the wet garden,
sprung in completeness
where his feet pass.

3

Mine is the sunlight,
mine is the morning
born of the one light
Eden saw play:
praise with elation,
praise every morning,
God's re-creation
of the new day!

Eleanor Farjeon (1881-1965)

President: In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

The Lord be with you
The Lord bless you.

CARLO CURLEY is one of the world's foremost concert organists. Born into a musical family in North Carolina (USA) in 1952, he attended the North Carolina School of the Arts and coached privately with renowned pedagogues Arthur Poister and Robert Elmore. Ultimately, he studied with two of the world's greatest organists: America's legendary Virgil Fox and Great Britain's Sir George Thalben-Ball.

A flamboyant and popular American concert organist, Curley is sometimes characterised as the "Pavarotti of the organ". He is one of only a few concert organists world-wide who supports himself exclusively by giving organ concerts without supplementing his income by teaching or titular organ position.

Early in his career, he was invited by the President to play at the White House, and made history as the first classical organist to give a solo organ recital there. Today, he tours the world, having played in every state and province in North America and Canada, as well as Europe, Asia, Australia and Hong Kong. His recent concert tour of Japan with the King's Singers, sponsored by Rolex, was warmly received and a sell-out everywhere.

Carlo Curley records exclusively for Decca International, including CDs and the first-ever commercial video of a classical organ performance, Organ Imperial. His recordings have been voted "Best of the Month" by Stereo Review in the USA, "Record of the Year" in Scandinavia, "Laser Disc of Exceptio.

Praise and glory to Christ, God's new beginning for humanity making ritual water gospel wine, cleansing all our worship.

Love and loyalty to Christ, who gives us the gospel. Praise to Christ who call us to holiness.

We give thanks to God for his love and care for all creation and our redemption through Christ as we say together the Song of Praise

Christ is the living water cleansing, refreshing, making all things new.
Christ is the living bread;
food for the hungry, strength for the pilgrim and the labourer.

So now we offer our thanks for the beauty of these islands;
for the wild places and the bush,
for the mountains, the coast and the sea.

We offer thanks and praise to God for this good land;
for its trees and pastures,
for its plentiful crops
and the skills we have learned to grow them.

Our thanks for marae and the cities we have built;
for science and discoveries,
for our life together,
for Aotearoa, New Zealand.

Invitation to Confession (please sit or kneel)

We come seeking forgiveness for all we have failed to be and do as members of Christ's body.

In God there is forgiveness.

Loving and all-seeing God, forgive us where we have failed to support one another and to be what we claim to be.
Forgive us where we have failed to serve you;
and where our thoughts and actions have been contrary to yours we ask your pardon.

President: God forgives us; be at peace.
Rejoice and be glad,
for Christ is resurrection,
reconciliation for all the human race.

We shall all be one in Christ,
one in our life together.

praise to God who has accepted us,
praise to God who sends us into the world.

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah (1: 4-10)

Now the word of the Lord came to me saying, ‘Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations.’ Then I said, ‘Ah, Lord God! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy.’ But the Lord said to me, ‘Do not say, “I am only a boy”; for you shall go to all to whom I send you, and you shall speak whatever I command you. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord.’ Then the Lord put out his hand and touched my mouth; and the Lord said to me, ‘Now I have put my words in your mouth. See, today I appoint you over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to pull down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.’ (NRSV)

A reading from Acts of the Apostles (6: 12-20)

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, ‘Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?’ He asked, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ The reply came, ‘I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told

And when I think that God His Son not sparing, sent Him to die – I scarce can take it in,
that on the cross my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin:
Then sings my soul. . .

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
and take me home - what joy shall fill my heart!
Then shall I bow in humble adoration
and there proclaim, my God, how great Thou art!
Then sings my soul...

what you are to do.’ The men who were travelling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one. Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank. Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, ‘Ananias.’ He answered, ‘Here I am, Lord.’ The Lord said to him, ‘Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight.’ But Ananias answered, ‘Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name.’ But the Lord said to him, ‘Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel; I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name.’ So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, ‘Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.’ And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength. For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus, and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, ‘He is the Son of God.’ All who heard him were amazed and said, ‘Is not this the man who made havoc in Jerusalem among those who invoked this name? And has he not come here for the purpose of bringing them bound before the chief priests?’ Saul became increasingly more powerful and confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Jesus was the Messiah. (NRSV)

A reading from the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Matthew (19: 27-30)

Praise and glory to God.

Then Peter said in reply, ‘Look, we have left everything and followed you. What then will we have?’ Jesus said to them, ‘Truly I tell you, at the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man is seated on the throne of his glory, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields, for my name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.' (NRSV)

This is the Gospel of Christ.
Praise to Christ, the Word.

Final Hymn: How great thou art

O Lord my God! when I in awesome wonder consider all the works Thy hand hath made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
the power throughout the universe displayed;

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee,
how great Thou art, how great Thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee,
how great Thou art, how great Thou art!*

When through the woods and forest glades I wander
and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur,
and hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze;
Then sings my soul . . .

Offertory Hymn: Amazing Grace

1
Amazing grace - how sweet the sound
that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
was blind, but now I see.

3
Through every danger, trial and snare
I have already come;
his grace has brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.

5
And when this earthly life is past,
and mortal cares shall cease,
I shall possess with Christ at last eternal joy and peace.

2
God's grace first taught my heart to fear,
his grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear
the hour I first believed!

4
The Lord has promised good to me,
his word my hope secures;
my shield and stronghold he shall be
as long as life endures.
